Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b), the undersigned conducted a change of plea hearing in this case on January 4, 2019. Assistant United States Attorney Cynthia F. Davidson appeared on behalf of the Government. Assistant Federal Defenders Paula R. Voss and Molly Kincaid represented Defendant Dickerson, who was also present. At the hearing, Defendant entered a plea of guilty to the one-count Information [Doc. 3], in exchange for the commitments made by the Government in the written plea agreement [Docs. 4 & 5]. On the basis of the record made at the hearing, the undersigned finds the Defendant is fully capable and competent to enter an informed plea; the plea is made knowingly and with full understanding of each of the rights waived by Defendant; the plea is made voluntarily and free from any force, threats, or promises, apart from the promises in the plea agreement; the Defendant understands the nature of the charge and penalties provided by law; and the plea has a sufficient basis in fact.

RECOMMENDS that Defendant remain in custody until sentencing in this matter. Adjudication of guilt and imposition of sentence are specifically reserved for the District Judge.¹

Respectfully submitted,

United States Magistrate Judge

¹The Court notifies the parties of the following: You have the right to de novo review by the District Judge of the above findings. Any application for review must be in writing, must specify the portions of the findings or proceedings to which the party objects, and must be filed and served no later than fourteen days after the change of plea hearing. Failure to file objections within fourteen days constitutes a waiver of any further right to challenge the plea of guilty in this matter. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b).
